The Excise Commissioner
in Mysore

Dear Sir,

I am directed by the Commissioner to inform you that he has just had a conversation with Mr Kearns about his proposed appointment in which he pointed out that as an Inspector of Salt and Abkari Revenue (his permanent appointment in this Department), he is only entitled to Rs 3 per diem Travelling allowance the low rate being fixed in consideration of the fact that an Inspector's jurisdiction usually covers only a couple of Talukes. In Mysore he will have to travel over the whole state which will be much more expensive work. He therefore asks that he be granted Travelling allowance at Assistant Commissioner's rate Rs 5 per diem. He is entitled to this rate at present in his appointment of

Acting

Acting Assistant Commissioner, Muzaffarnagar, which he requests to take ——— up your appointment and the Commissioner thinks that this request is a reasonable one.

2. As Inspector he is provided by Government with a house which Assistant Commissioners are either provided with a house or draw house-rent at Rs 46-2-6 per mensem. Mr Kearns should, the Commissioner thinks, receive some allowance on this account also, as otherwise he will be a serious loser by his deputation to Mysore.

3. In the Salt and Abkari Department Government provides tents and pays part of the cost of carriage. It is presumed that some similar arrangement will be made in Mr. Kearns's case, or that he will be granted tentage if he has to provide himself with them.

4. I am also to inform you that the Commissioner regrets that these points were not raised by Mr Kearns sooner. The same questions would arise with regard to the deputation of any other officer of either the Assistant Commissioner or Inspector's class, and unless liberally dealt with

(please see the Dewan's remarks dated 29th June 1901 below)

In March 197, the Darbar applied to the Resident for a loan of Mr ~~Kearns~~ Kearns' services in connection with the introduction of the tree tax system in Mysore. Mr Kearns who was then drawing Rs 350/- as an Inspector of the Madras Abkari Department, accepted ~~to take up~~ the post of an Assistant Commr in Mysore, on Rs 400/- as a temporary measure. His transfer to Mysore was sanctioned by the Govt of India and he accordingly joined the Mysore service on the 9th August 1897. From the date of his appointment in Mysore Mr Kearns was drawing Rs 400/- (net pay) till 1st April 199 on which date his pay was

This was not the paper I wanted. His overstay seems to have been inevitable and the absence may perhaps be condoned if the Councillor agrees or wishes. What I wanted had regard to Mr. Kearns' complaint that his promotion in our service was delayed with the result that he was forced to draw actually less than what he was drawing in Madras at the time. These papers may be kindly sent to me.
